

Palmyra First UMC is seeking an organist/choir director

Descriptions of the two components of the job are presented below:

Organist/Accompanist

Palmyra First United Methodist church is seeking an organist/accompanist for our traditional service, as well as other services as needed. Experience with a pipe organ is preferred, but not required. An individual must be an accomplished keyboardist at a minimum, and if needed, lessons on the pipe organ may be provided.

Choir Director

Palmyra First United Methodist is seeking a choir director for its traditional service. The individual will be responsible for directing a small group of dedicated singers willing to practice on Sundays only (with the summer off). The director will work with the pastor in the selection of hymns and other music pieces for that week.
